Subject: Microsoft settlement!

To whom it may concern,

I guess this will never end. I just heard that AOL is going to take Microsoft to court over the same thing that it's been complaining about for ever. It should be very obvious what their game is, and that is to hang their competitor up as long as possible while they gain in market share and time. The same applies to these state law suits except all the attorney generals want is fame and notoriety. I hate what our country and its court system has become! Anybody can take anybody to court without any real reason, except to try and bring them down and all the while bringing our country and the lives of the innocent down with it.

PLEASE END THIS CANCER ON MICROSOFT .
